Federal Court of Appeal
90 Sparks Street, 5th floor
Ottawa, Ontario K1A 0H9

Dear Registry Officer,

RE: Air Passenger Rights v. Canadian Transportation Agency (A-102-20)

We are counsel for the Applicant, Air Passenger Rights. Please kindly bring this letter to Gleason J.A.'s attention. Her Ladyship is seized with the Applicant's Rule 41 and 318 Motion to Compel Documents from the Respondent, the Canadian Transportation Agency (Doc. 52).

By way of this letter, the Applicant seeks leave from this Court to introduce a further affidavit (enclosed) for the aforementioned motion, consisting of three new exhibits. These new exhibits were just transmitted on or about May 11, 2021 by Transport Canada to a Parliamentary committee, the Standing Committee on Transport, Infrastructure and Communities.

The emails (Exhibit "B") confirms the Applicant's position that there are relevant and producible documents in the Agency's possession. Those documents will assist the panel in determining the merits of the judicial review, as it clearly demonstrates that the Agency did not act independently in preparing the Publications, but had input from Transport Canada and other yet to be identified persons.

Counsel for the Attorney General of Canada, and the Respondent, the Canadian Transportation Agency, are copied on this letter.

Should the Court have any directions, we would be pleased to comply.

Yours truly,

EVOLINK LAW GROUP
