DIRECTION

The Court has before it the appellant's letter of December 24, 2013 and December 30, 2013 and the respondent's letter of December 30, 2013.

The Court directs that:

- i) Any request to adduce evidence should be directed to the panel hearing the appeal.
The parties should be mindful of the high threshold to be met when seeking to adduce evidence on an appeal.
- ii) The respondent is requested to bring to the hearing 4 copies of the Disputed Document in its entirety in the event it is required. A copy should be provided to the appellant forthwith should he request it.
