Dear Madame/Mr. Registrar:

Re: Democracy Watch v. Attorney General of Canada – Court File No: 39202

I act as counsel for the Applicant, Democracy Watch, in the above-captioned Application for Leave to Appeal. This letter is written to accompany the letter written by Mr. Simon Lin, Counsel for Air Passenger Rights, the Applicant in File No. 39266.

Jointly with the Applicant Air Passenger Rights, the Applicant Democracy Watch requests that the both Applications be assigned to the same panel of judges to consider the Applications concurrently for the purposes of leave to appeal, given that the two Applications raise a common question that is central to both Applications.

The grounds for this request are detailed in the letter from Mr. Lin.

Yours Truly,
SPANO LAW

Sebastian Spano,
Barrister and Solicitor.

Cc: Mr. Simon Lin, Counsel for Air Passenger Rights, (Applicant in File No. 39266); Mr. Allan Matte, counsel for the Canadian Transportation Agency (Respondent in File No. 39266); Mr. Alexander M. Gay, counsel for the Attorney General of Canada (Respondent in File No: 39202); and Mr. Christopher Rupar, Agent for the Attorney General of Canada (Respondent in File No. 39202).
